

The wedding of the Romantic Bride will in all things reflect her passion and femininity. At the Marriott Auburn Opelika Hotel & Conference Center at Grand National, our bride Katherine Webb, a Top 15 finalist and winner of the Most Photogenic award at the Miss Georgia 2008 pageant, takes in the beautifully designed landscape where her wedding will take place.

Romance and flowers go hand in hand, and Katherine's wedding is ablaze in rich red and burgundy colors. Her bouquet, provided by Kimberly Nelson Floral Design, is a hand-tied grouping of flowers repeated throughout the ceremony. Green cymbidium orchids and a burgundy satin ribbon with diamond brooch provide an elegant, finishing touch.

the Romantic bride

Photography by: FlipFlopFoto
Event Design: Kimberly Nelson Floral Design

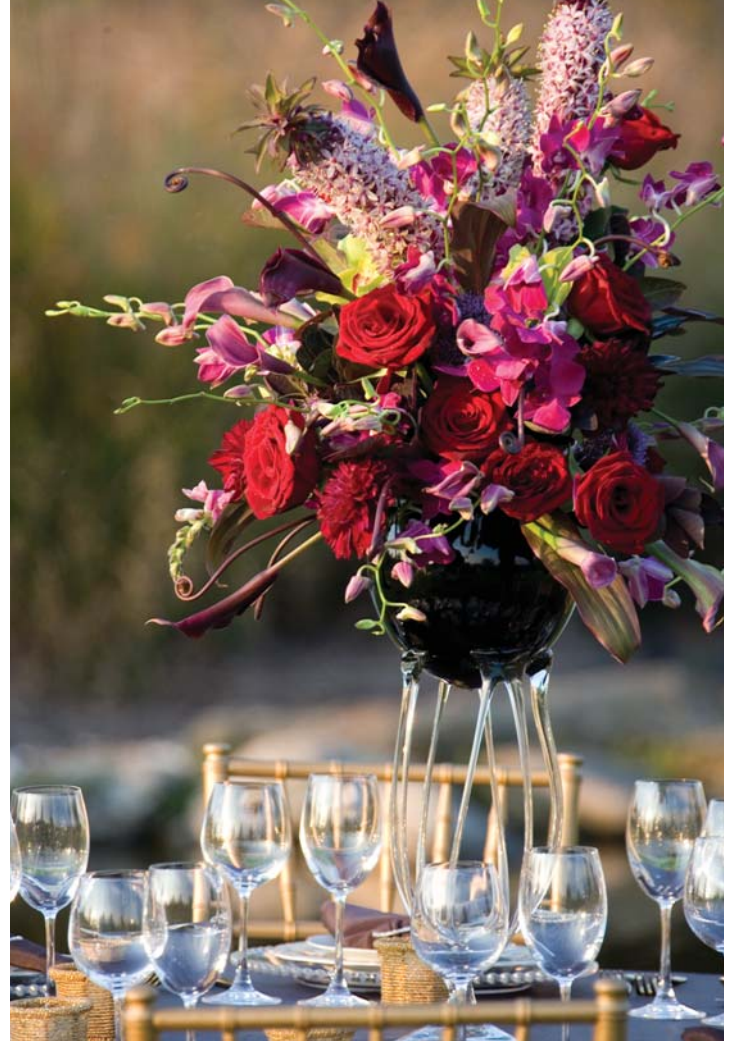

At the end of a lush aisle of black magic rose petals, a grand fountain serves as the perfect backdrop for the ceremony. Each urn houses an oversized arrangement of deep plum Calla lilies, black magic roses, red hanging amaranthus, burgundy snap dragons, dahlias, brown fern curls and cotinus foliage. Purple orchids are draped across each stream of flowing water. Kimberly Nelson Floral Design created all flower designs. Padded golden chivari chairs, provided by We Rent Atlanta, look inviting and ready for the arrival of guests.

Katherine wears a Heidi Einora gown, an all-over Alençon lace dress with hand woven silk satin ribbon detailing at the bodice. The back of the gown has a key-hole opening and a hand tied ribbon at the neck opening. Its train has a slight sweep and includes hand appliqué lace to create a scalloped finish. Bridesmaids Meagan Godfrey, Magan Marbut and Jenna Bryant each wear gowns and jewelry provided by Seraphim. Tom Rehle of Dimensions Studio styled the bridal party's hair, Heidi Stocumb of Blush Boutique & Spa did makeup. Flip Flop Foto photographed all the romance and beauty of the day.

The rich and lavish hues displayed on this tablescape radiate an inviting yet unexpected essence that guests will adore. The arrangement is a true centerpiece. Plum Calla lilies, lavender eucomis and black magic roses fit perfectly within a uniquely designed plum vase. The espresso bichon table linen is complimented by espresso napkins in bengaline fabric, both provided by BBJ Linen.

The bride's cake table is fashioned in gold lamour linen, pin-tucked over an espresso bengaline cloth provided by BBJ Linen. Icing Illusions created the exquisite six-tier cake.

The rich red and ivory place settings, along with invitations trimmed with red and gold satin ribbon suggest a hint of romance and were provided by Annabelle's. The menu presents a sampling of delicacies that include cold seared sesame tuna served with cucumber salad, and herb marinated Frenched chicken breasts that are pan roasted and served on a bed of citrus couscous with roasted tomatoes.

